

Marye Jane Brockinton

Marye Jane Brockinton of Cabot, Arkansas, has been a corporate trainer and CEO who transferred these experiences to the classroom. She has organized mentoring programs targeting students in need of emotional and physical resources and created and continues to manage the Homework Lab, where free tutoring is available every morning for the 1,300 students in her building. Brockinton believes every child can succeed, and her students' state test scores reflect her belief.

She is currently the instructional facilitator for Cabot Junior High North, where she provides coaching and resources for teachers and students. In addition, she works with the schools in her district to help administrators and teachers apply Dr. Payne's research and strategies. Brockinton is a trainer for the Arkansas Teacher Mentor Program and serves on the Arkansas State Assessment Committee.

She earned a B.S. and a Master of Arts in Teaching from Harding University and holds an administrative specialist degree from Arkansas State University.
