Workshop and Certification

1. I am applying for training in the R Rules (the “training”) to be held by aha! Process, Inc. (the “Company”) on the dates and at the location indicated below.

Certification Training Dates: _____

Certification Training Location: _____

2. I am taking the certified facilitator training for the purpose indicated below:

Certification as a Facilitator—Two-Year Certificate
(My certificate expires on December 31 of the second year after my training.)

Non-Certification—Information and Knowledge Only
(I will not be acting as a facilitator for this curriculum to anyone else.)

3. Certification requires successful completion of certified facilitator training, including full attendance of all sessions for the entire training and possibly demonstrating proficiency as a facilitator of the materials. If I fail to demonstrate proficiency as a facilitator, the Company will permit me to repeat the facilitator training without paying another training fee, subject to availability of space in future trainings. The Company has no obligation to put on additional facilitator trainings at the same location or nearby locations to accommodate such repeat attendance.

4. Certification will be effective through December 31 of the second year after I am certified. At the end of each two-year period, I will be required to participate in a specified recertification training and receive certification on the Company’s then-existing criteria.

5. I acknowledge and agree that as a certified facilitator, I will be authorized only to facilitate the R Rules curriculum. I agree to refer any organization requesting a facilitator training to the Company to seek the services from its national consultants.

Intellectual Property

6. The certified facilitator training includes training regarding proprietary intellectual property owned by the Company, including and without limitation know-how, written materials, research and related data and analysis, training techniques, and oral presentations (the “Proprietary Materials”). I acknowledge and agree that the Proprietary Materials are the sole and exclusive property of the Company and may not be used other than strictly in accordance with the limited license described below.

7. The Proprietary Materials include copyrighted written materials, including the workbook titled The R Rules: A Guide for Teens to Identify and Build Resources and the The R Rules Facilitator Guide: A Guide for Teens to Identify and Build Resources (both for middle school and high school students). I acknowledge and agree that under no circumstances will I be permitted to photocopy or otherwise duplicate these Proprietary Materials, except as expressly permitted in the limited license. When using Proprietary Materials and concepts, I agree to honor the Company's copyright and other intellectual property rights associated with the Proprietary Materials by displaying the copyright on the material or citing the applicable material within the Proprietary Materials as the source of information using the name of the source material and assigning due credit. 8. aha! Process reserves the exclusive right to publish and license, along with the right to reproduce, distribute, perform, and/or display, any derivative works arising from its Proprietary Materials that may be created by the certified facilitator, including any presentations, workshops, or other type of training. 9. For each group facilitation, I agree to have the class sponsor purchase a personal copy of The R Rules: A Guide for Teens to Identify and Build Resources; it is not acceptable to reuse the Proprietary Materials for multiple training workshops. I agree not to facilitate a group without verifying that the sponsoring group has complied with this requirement. In addition to these materials, I am permitted to make available to my audience aha! Process-provided PowerPoint slide handouts of various print formats with the copyright citation to aha! Process as publisher, as stated above in Paragraph 7.

10. I agree to adhere to model fidelity when facilitating, as per the Facilitator Guide for The R Rules: A Guide for Teens to Identify and Build Resources.

12. I agree to recertify every two years in order to continue facilitating with this material.

13. I agree not to train others as facilitators of the Proprietary Materials.

14. The Company has the right, at its sole cost and expense, to attend or monitor any presentation for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the limited license and my proficiency and effectiveness. In the event the Company determines that my proficiency and effectiveness does not meet the Company's standards, the Company shall have the right to suspend my certification and require attendance at another training to receive recertification or participate in other training that may be provided by the Company or its consultants to raise my proficiency and effectiveness.

15. In no event will the Company be responsible for any costs or expenses I or my sponsoring institution incur with respect to the facilitation of a group or the cancellation or rescheduling of a group.
