

Tactical Communication for First Responders: Effective Interactions by Understanding Class

1

Introduction

Introduction to the Criminal Justice model is by conversation, hearing a Tactical Communications or Bridges Out of Poverty workshop, or reading the books

2

Workshop

Offer a full-day Tactical Communications workshop to first responders, judges, probation officers, or Department of Corrections employees

Put in place a mechanism to capture contact information for individuals wanting to learn more

3

Meeting

Schedule a gathering for those interested in embedding the constructs from Bridges Out of Poverty and Tactical Communication

Begin conversations around offering Getting Ahead while Getting Out within jails and prisons, and R Rules in juvenile detention centers

4

Training

Train facilitators for Getting Ahead while Getting Out and R Rules

Begin certifying trainers in Tactical Communication

5

Implementation

Launch Getting Ahead while Getting Out and R Rules classes

Form community organization collaboratives for Staying Ahead

6

Data Collection

Data collection for Getting Ahead while Getting Out and The R Rules

7

Strategic Consulting

Strategic consulting with aha! Process consultant

TAKEAWAYS

Build understanding with first responders, judges, and probation officers about the environment of poverty in their community

