

Job Corps Training

GOALS

- ◆ Increase student enrollment
- ◆ Stabilize and increase retention
- ◆ Placement after graduation
- ◆ Reduce episodes of emotional explosions, anxiety, anger, and violence
- ◆ Learn to read emotional body language of students

Stronger Community Relationships	Building Partnerships within the Community 	Growing Social Capital of Employees 	Opening Employment Possibilities for Students
------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Fewer Discipline Issues	Building Relationships of Mutual Respect 	Motivation Behind Behaviors; Key Issues for Brain Development 	Strategies to Strengthen Students' Persistence
---------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Systems Level of Campus	Intentional Process for Identifying and Reducing Triggers That Lead to Student Blow-Ups 	Reducing Percentage of Separations without Credentials 	Creating a Safe Campus Space
---------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------